MISSION AND GOAL

The 21st century calls for an enhanced understanding of China. This topic has become one of the most significant for key opinion leaders and the academia. Sinology, as one of the divisions of Chinese Studies, explores the basis of the traditional spirit of the Chinese nation.

Established by Dr. Elizabeth WOO LI, the Sinological Development Charitable Foundation (SDCF) aims at promoting the studies of Chinese civilization across nations.

SDCF hopes to enhance the stature of Hong Kong as a major hub for the Greater China Region by focusing on creating a platform to exchange sinological ideas and as a cultural forum for sinologists around the globe. The support and development of more sinologists both as a profession and an area of scholarly interest is our main goal.

2017 GREATER CHINA
2nd PROGRAM IN "CHINESE STUDIES"

Unit 706, 7/F, 9 Queen's Road Central
Central, Hong Kong

INFORMATION FOR PARTICIPANTS

Sinological Development Charitable Foundation Limited is a non-profit organization registered in HK. Our main aim is to help scholars around the world to further understand Chinese culture, philosophy and history by offering relevant programs that will encourage them to integrate Chinese studies into their own teaching and research.

Our Summer Program in Chinese Studies aims at introducing Chinese studies to scholars and key opinion leaders from around the world who are in the disciplines other than Sinology. All instruction is conducted in English and a minimum standard is required for participation.

WAYS OF PARTICIPATION

SELF-PAID PARTICIPATION

- A daily tuition at Hong Kong, Taiwan or Beijing costs 100 USD per location /per day
- Full participation costs 2 500 USD
*Other expenses (room and board, travel etc.) are not included, and should be managed by participants themselves.

SPONSORED PARTICIPATION

SDCF will support a limited number of sponsored participants in the program. Sponsored participants are expected to integrate learning results into their teaching curriculum and research. Participants are expected to arrive in Hong Kong, at their own expense for the beginning of the program. All other expenses (tuition, room and board, travel etc.) are covered by SDCF.

A self-funding study tour may be available at the end of the program to further understand Buddhism in Tibet and China. For those interested, inquires can be made.

OUTCOME

Participants of all levels are expected to present their special projects working in groups at the end of the program. Selected papers will be submitted for 24th World Philosophical Congress in Beijing, in 2018.

HONG KONG

The Classics

The program will commence in Hong Kong, the city with the largest number of English speaking scholars in Chinese Studies. The Book of Change 《易經》, The Four Books 《四書》 and other important Pre-Qin modes of thought will be introduced.

The program will take place at Chung Chi College of The Chinese University of Hong Kong, a key partner to this program.

MACAU and TAIWAN

Study Visits

Buddhism and Daoism will be introduced in Taiwan, where many authentic traditional customs, beliefs, and institutions have been preserved. Participants will be introduced to meditation and training methodologies of the Buddhist and Daoist discipline, to experience and practice in their respective sites.

Meanwhile, Macau is also an important part of Greater China, and its significance will be introduced.

BEIJING

China Up-to Today and Into the Future

The last part of the program will be held at Peking University located in Beijing. Late imperial and contemporary intellectual history will be introduced. The responses to the challenges of Buddhism and various other religious influences as well as the process of meeting the West in contemporary China will be explored in her capital.
